The Receiving Party acknowledges that disclosure of Confidential Information would cause substantial harm for which damages alone would not be a sufficient remedy, and therefore that upon any such disclosure by the Receiving Party the Disclosing Party will be entitled to seek appropriate equitable relief in addition to whatever other remedies it might have at law. This confidentiality obligation applies for 3 years after the lapse of all Subscription Terms.

13. PUBLICITY

The Customer agrees that the Provider may disclose the Customer as a customer of the Provider and publish the name(s) of the Customer Properties, the name of the Customer and the fact that the Customer Properties use the Services, as a reference for the Provider, including on the Provider's public website. The Customer hereby authorizes the Provider to use Customer's name and logo for the purpose of providing the Services, on the Provider's website and in the Provider's promotional materials. The Provider agrees that any such use shall (a) only be related to the Customer's use of the Services; (b) be subject to the Provider complying with any written guidelines that the Customer may deliver to the Provider regarding the use of its name; and (c) not be deemed the Customer's endorsement of the Services.

14. GENERAL TERMS

14.1. Assignment. Neither Party may assign the Agreement without the advance written consent of the other Party, except that either Party may assign the Agreement in connection with a merger, reorganization, acquisition, or other transfer of all or substantially all of such Party's assets or voting securities. Any attempt to transfer or assign the Agreement except as expressly authorized under this Section 14.1 will be null and void.

14.2. Severability. If any provision of the Agreement will be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable or invalid, that provision will be limited to the minimum extent necessary so that the Agreement will otherwise remain in effect.

14.3. Governing Law; Dispute Resolution.

a) Governing Law. The Agreement is construed and governed by the Laws of England and Wales, unless specified otherwise in the Order Form, and without reference to applicable jurisdiction's conflict of laws principles.

b) Dispute Resolution. In the event of any dispute, claim, question, or disagreement arising from or relating to the Agreement, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, (the "Dispute"), the Parties shall first use their best efforts to resolve the Dispute amicably.

If the Parties are unable to reach a resolution of the Dispute in accordance with the previous sentence, then the Dispute shall subsequently be resolved via litigation before the applicable court as set forth below.

c) Litigation. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with the Agreement shall be resolved by the courts of England and Wales, having its territorial jurisdiction in Prague; however, if the Customer is a consumer within the meaning of applicable law, this provision does not affect the Customer's right to bring proceedings before a court having jurisdiction under mandatory consumer-protection regulations.

14.4. Notice. Any notice or communication required or permitted under the Agreement will be in writing to the Parties at the addresses set forth on the Order Form or at such other address as may be given in writing by either Party to the other in accordance with this Section and will be deemed to have been received by the addressee (i) if given by hand, immediately upon receipt; (ii) if given by overnight courier service, the first business day following dispatch or (iii) if given by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid and return receipt requested, the second business day after such notice is deposited in the mail or (iv) next business day if sent by email.

14.5. Amendments; Waivers. All waivers and amendments must be in a writing signed by both Parties, except as otherwise provided herein. Neither Party will be treated as having waived any rights by not exercising (or delaying the exercise of) any rights under the Agreement.

14.6. Entire Agreement. The Agreement is the complete and exclusive statement of the mutual understanding of the Parties and supersedes and cancels all previous written and oral agreements and communications relating to the subject matter of the Agreement. No provision of any Order Form or other business form employed by the Customer will supersede the terms and conditions of the Agreement, and any such document relating to the Agreement will be for administrative purposes only and will have no legal effect.

14.7. Modifications to the Agreement. The Provider may modify this Agreement from time to time. Unless otherwise specified, any changes will become effective upon renewal of the Customer's current Subscription Term or execution of a new Order Form. The Provider will use reasonable efforts to notify the Customer of such changes, and continued use of the Services after the changes take effect constitutes acceptance of the updated Agreement. If the Provider specifies that changes will take effect prior to the Customer's next Renewal Term for legal, regulatory, or product-related reasons and the Customer objects within ten (10) calendar days of notice, the Provider may either defer the effectiveness of such changes until the next renewal or terminate the affected Subscription Term and refund any prepaid fees for the unused portion. The Provider may modify the Services and update the applicable documentation, SLA or security policy from time to time upon reasonable notice, provided that such updates do not materially reduce the Provider's obligations as of the effective date of the modification.

14.8. Force Majeure. Neither Party will be liable to the other for any delay or failure to perform any obligation under the Agreement (except for a failure to pay fees) if the delay or failure is due to unforeseen events that occur after the signing of the Agreement and that are beyond the reasonable control of such Party, such as a strike, blockade, war, act of terrorism, riot, natural disaster, failure or diminishment of power or telecommunications or data networks or services, or refusal of a license by a government agency.

14.9. Subcontractors. The Provider may use the services of its Contractors and permit them to exercise the rights granted to the Provider in order to provide the Services and Professional Services under the Agreement, provided that the Provider remains responsible for the overall performance of the Services as required under the Agreement.

14.10. Court Orders. Nothing in the Agreement prevents the Provider from disclosing Customer Data to the extent required by law, subpoenas, or court orders, but the Provider will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify the Customer where permitted to do so.

14.11. Independent Contractors. The Parties to the Agreement are independent contractors. There is no relationship of partnership, joint venture, employment, franchise, or agency created hereby between the Parties. Neither Party will have the power to bind the other or incur obligations on the other Party's behalf without the other Party's prior written consent.

14.12. Export Control. In its use of the Services, the Customer agrees to comply with all export and import laws and regulations of the applicable jurisdictions. Without limiting the foregoing, (i) the Customer represents and warrants that it is not listed on any US, UK, or EU government list of prohibited or restricted parties or located in (or a national of) a country that is subject to a US, UK, or EU government embargo or that has been designated by the US, UK, or EU government as a "terrorist supporting" country, (ii) the Customer will not (and will not permit any of its users to) access or use the Services in violation of any US, UK, or EU export embargo, prohibition or restriction, and (iii) the Customer will not submit to the Services any information that is controlled under the U.S. International Traffic in Arms Regulations.

14.13. Counterparts. The Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original and all of which together will be considered one and the same agreement.

The Provider is obliged at all times to Process Personal Data in compliance with Data Protection Legislation and fulfil all its obligations arising out of Data Protection Legislation.

3.3. Processing Instructions. The Provider shall immediately inform Customer if it becomes aware that Customer's Processing instructions infringe Data Protection Legislation. If the Provider is unable to Process Personal Data in accordance with the Customer's documented lawful instructions, the Provider is obliged to promptly notify Customer of its inability to comply.

The Customer is also responsible for the use of the Services by any person the Customer authorized to access or use the Services, and any person who gains access to its Personal Data or the Services as a result of its failure to use reasonable security precautions, even if the Customer did not authorize such use. The Customer agrees to notify the Provider immediately upon becoming aware of any unauthorized use of the Services or of any other breach of security involving the Services.

6. COOPERATION

6.1. Data Subject Rights. To the extent that the Customer is unable to access the relevant Personal Data within the Services independently, the Provider shall, taking into account the nature of the Processing, provide assistance (including by appropriate technical and organizational measures) to provide reasonable cooperation to the Customer in order to (i) respond to any requests from a data subject seeking to exercise any of its rights under Data Protection Legislation (including its right of access, correction, objection, erasure and data portability, as applicable); and (ii) any other correspondence, enquiry or complaint received from a data subject, regulator or other third party in connection with the Processing of the Personal Data (collectively "Correspondence").

6.3. Request for Disclosure. The Provider is obliged to promptly notify the Customer about any legally binding request for disclosure of the personal data by a judicial or regulatory authority unless otherwise prohibited, such as the obligation under criminal law to preserve the confidentiality of a judicial enquiry and to assist the Customer accordingly (at Customer's expense).

7. SECURITY INCIDENTS

7.1. Data Breach. Upon becoming aware of a Data Breach, the Provider shall notify the Customer without undue delay and shall provide such timely information and cooperation as the Customer may reasonably require in order to fulfil its data breach reporting obligations under Data Protection Legislation, including the type of data

If the Customer has a reasonable objection to any new sub-processor, it shall notify the Provider of such objections in writing to [email] within ten (10) days from receiving the notification and the Parties will seek to resolve the matter in good faith. If Customer does not provide a timely objection to any new sub-processor in accordance with this Section 8.3, Customer will be deemed to have consented to the sub-processor and waived its right to object.

9. DATA TRANSFERS

9.1. International Data Transfers. The Customer agrees that Personal Data it processes under the Agreement may be processed in any country in which the Provider and its Sub-processors maintain facilities to perform the Services, as further detailed in the Sub-processor List. The Provider shall take all such measures necessary to ensure that the Processing and transfer of Personal Data in or to a territory other than the territory in which the Personal Data was first collected complies with Data Protection Legislation.

9.2. Application of Standard Contractual Clauses. The Parties agree that when and to the extent the transfer of Personal Data from the Customer to the Provider is a Restricted Transfer and EU Data Protection Laws or UK Data Protection Laws require that appropriate safeguards are put in place, such transfer shall be governed by the EU SCCs, which shall be incorporated by reference into and form an integral part of this DPA.

9.3. EU Data. For the purposes of Personal Data that is subject to the EU Data Protection Laws ("EU Data"):

10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Customer's remedies, including its Affiliates, and the Provider's liability arising out of or in relation to this DPA (including Standard Contractual Clauses), are subject to those limitations of liability and disclaimers set forth in the Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this DPA is intended to limit the rights a Data Subject may have against either Party arising out of such Party's breach of the Standard Contractual Clauses, where applicable.
